Keynote Speaker: Heather Boschke

Dare to Soar

In this empowering session, Heather Boschke invites the audience to realize their full potential beyond their professional and familial roles. Drawing from her 22-year corporate experience and subsequent transition to entrepreneurship, Heather underscores the importance of embracing all aspects of one's identity to lead a more impactful life. She shares her personal journey of self-discovery, which led her to explore art and create a children's book series about birds. Exploring your unique passions and strengths leads to greater fulfillment and a stronger sense of purpose, both in life and in work.
